Other desktop browsers should look quite similar

Mobile phone and tablet browsers may look significantly different, but the content should be essentially the same

Finding Your Enrolled Courses

Enrolled Courses

The screenshot displays the Learning From Buddha website interface. At the top, a dark red header contains the site name and navigation links. A gold sidebar on the left features a menu icon circled in red, with a red callout bubble pointing to it. Below the header, the main content area is titled 'Enrolled Courses' and lists two courses. The first course, 'D01(A)-Buddhism for Beginners, The Supreme and Magnificent Dharma (DISCOURSE ONLY)', is 50% complete and has a yellow 'CONTINUE' button. The second course, 'G03(A)-Evolution of Buddhism', is 0% complete and has a maroon 'START COURSE' button. Red arrows point to these buttons. The sidebar also contains icons for home, mail, calendar, star, user profile, search, help, and power.

- You can always return to your Enrolled Courses by clicking on the circled icon in the gold sidebar
- Click on the maroon Start Course button under the course name to begin a course
- You can resume where you left off in a course by clicking on the gold Continue button under the course name

Starting from the Course Home Page

- On the Curriculum tab you can start any lesson you want by clicking on the title of it (example outlined in red)
- You can also start or resume the course with the maroon button (red arrow)

Your First Lesson

- After you click on Start Course you will arrive at the first lesson
- We are going to use D01(A) as an example in the following pages
- The first lesson is preliminary steps that you need to do
- Scroll down and read through them

Completing the First Lesson

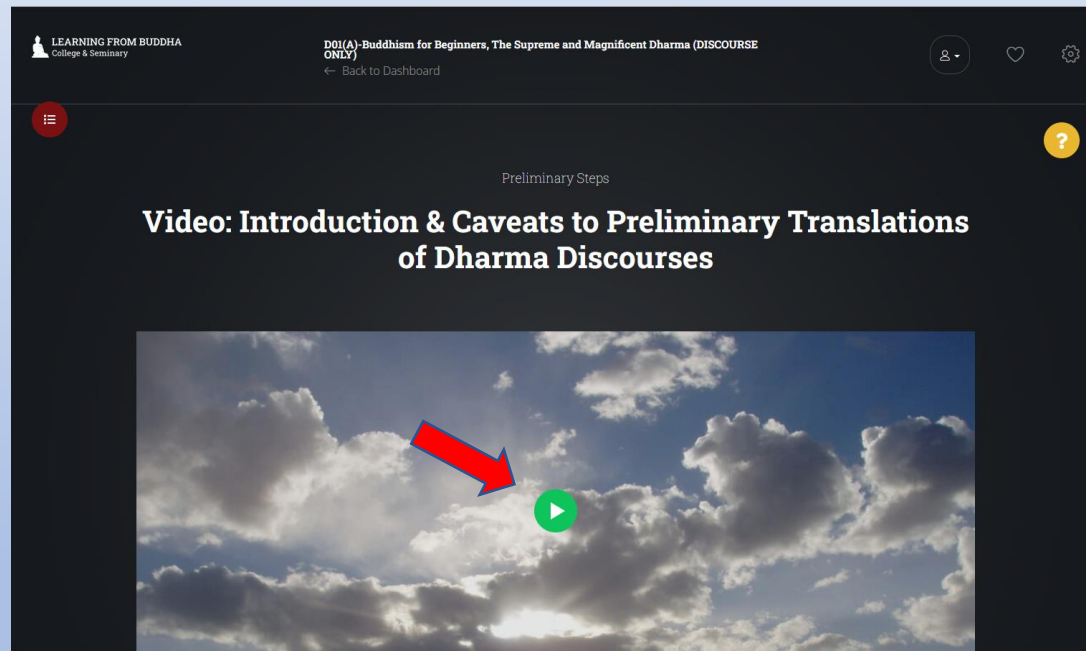

- For this lesson there is a PDF document available to download using the gold button
- When you have finished the lesson, click on Complete
- You can return to this page any time you want, even after you have marked it Complete

Getting to the Next Lesson

- After you click on Complete the banner turns gold and indicates that the lesson is completed
- Click on the right-pointing arrow to move to the next lesson
- Note: You must mark each page Complete in order to finish the course. It is easy to forget to click on Complete when there is nothing particular to do on a page or when it feels like you're already finished

A Video Lesson

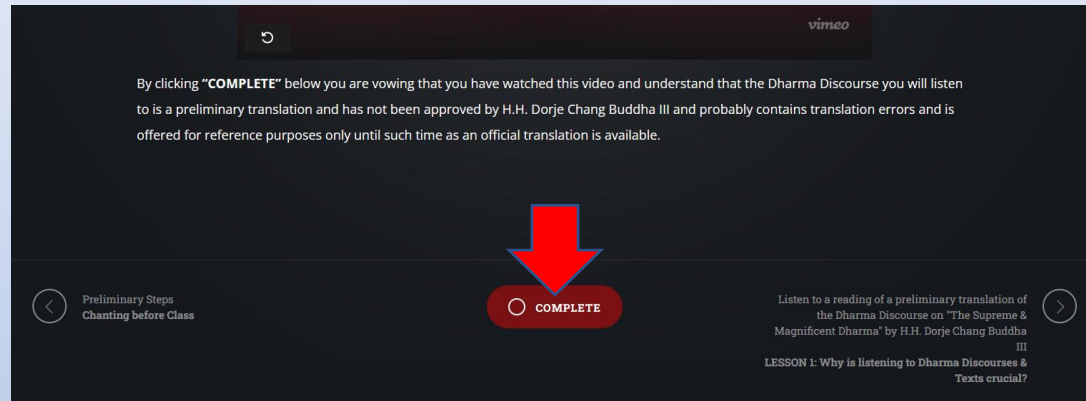

- This lesson is a video
- Click on the green “play” button to start the lesson
- Note: this green button doesn't actually start a video; that happens in the next step

Using the Vimeo Player

- The Vimeo player loads
- Click on the Play button to start the video
- There are options in the Vimeo player that you can explore using the icons on the bottom left of the player
 - Video quality
 - Video speed
 - Full screen or not

Completing a Video Lesson

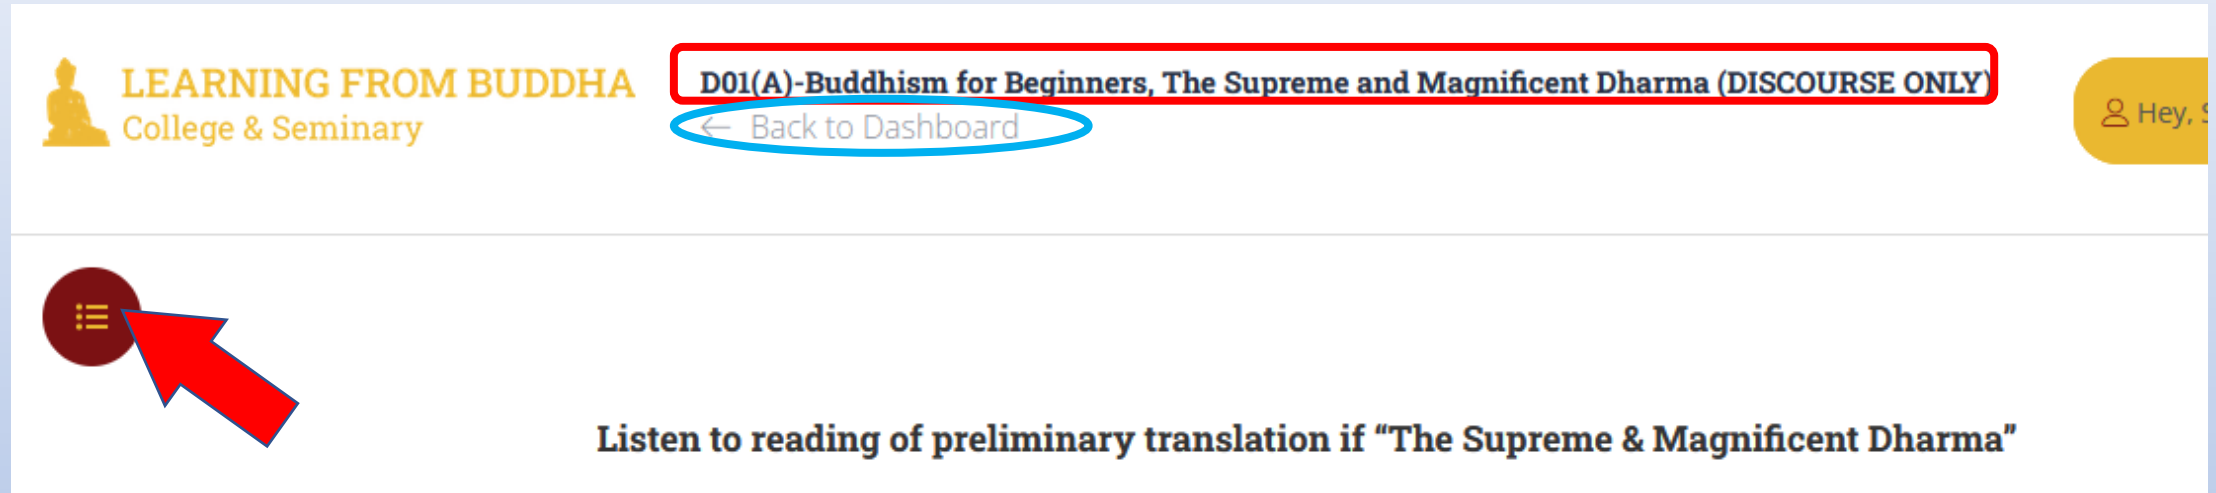

- When you have finished watching the video, read the statement and click on Complete

- The banner turns gold and shows Completed
- Navigate to the next lesson with the arrow button on the right side of the banner

Exiting a course

- The screenshot above is at the top of the page
- Clicking on the title of the course (circled in red) takes you to the Home Page for the course
- Clicking on Back to Dashboard (circled in blue) takes you to your Enrolled Courses page
- Clicking on the maroon button (red arrow) opens up a navigation menu

Jumping directly to any part of a course

- The Navigation Menu allows you to jump directly to any part of the course by clicking on the title of it
 - Note: the responsiveness after you click can be a little slow. Be patient
- When you have marked a lesson completed there is a check mark in the little gold circle on the right of each lesson

D53 Assignment 1: Overview Reading (Questions 1-3)

Please answer the following questions by copying the questions with their question number on either the website directly or by attaching a file with the same information. You must include the question and your answer for your answer to be considered. If you can, use another color for your answers.

1-How many times did you watch the videos?

2-If you are in the Buddhist Studies Program, do you want to be included in the Debate? (This is required for credit in the Xiuxing Seminary Program.)

3-What did you learn from reading this Dharma Discourse many times?

START NOW

- Some assignments have questions for you to answer
- You can answer them in a separate document and attach it
- You can answer them in a mini word processor built into the website
- If you choose to use the built-in word processor, be sure to save a copy of your answers on your computer
- Begin by clicking on Start Now

SEND ASSIGNMENT

- The questions are available by clicking on All Requirements (circled in red)
- You can type your answers in the mini word processor, but you should always save a copy of your answers on your computer
- The safest route is to create a document on your computer and then attach the file

Attaching a File

- When you click on Attach Files a smaller window will open to give you access to your file system
- You must know where the file is stored and what its name is
- Locate the file, highlight it, and then click on OK, Open, Attach, or whatever your Operating System offers to finish the selection
- This program does not accept all document formats, and so watch for a red error message informing you that the file extension is invalid:

Office of HHDCBIII Announcement 62.p...

Invalid file extension

- Apple Pages is one format that is not accepted. To get around that, Export it to a Word document from Pages and attach the Word document
- If the file attached successfully you will see its name below the button
